INDEX TO EDUCATION CANADA

Volume 10/1970

Subject Index

Administration

Recruiting leaders in school administration. Riederer, L.A., June, 34-36.

The school in 1980. Wallin, Herman A., March, 21-28.

Boards of Education

Changing relations between departments and school boards. Mowat, Gordon, December, 57-59.

The name of the game is accountability. Turner, J. Archie, December, 20-21.

A route to using resources more effectively. Keyes, Robert W., September, 38-41.

Change in Education

A decade of upheaval. Ross, Murray G., June, 18-22.

The delusion of change. St. John, J. Bascom, September, 3-8.

Politics and educational change in Britain. Knill, William, March, 43-47.

Revolution in curriculum or revolution in society? McDiarmid, G. L., June, 7-11.

Vitesse . . . ou lenteur de nos réactions en éducation. Beauregard, Claude, déc., 64-65.

Collective Bargaining

Collective bargaining by Canadian teachers: experience and direction. Muir, J. Douglas, June, 40-50.

Contract negotiations: the changing scene. Moir, Carmen, December, 66-68.

Computers

Computer education in Ontario secondary schools. Churchill, Stacy, and Norman Williams, September, 42-50.

L'ordinateur au service de la pédagogie. Huot, Guy, and Richard Trudel, mars, 29-34.

Consumer Education

Consumer education. Curry, Mary, December, 10-13.

Culturally disadvantaged children

Big city school: the way it was, the way it is. March, 8-12.

"I have seen great things happen . . . ". Quinn, William J., December, 42-49.

Montréal et les écoles des "zones grises". Grand'Maison, Georges, décembre, 50-56.

Curriculum

Revolution in curriculum or revolution in society? McDiarmid, G.L., June, 7-11.

What are we doing about Canadian content? Morrison, Alan B., December, 40-41.

Drugs — education

Drugs. What can the schools do about the problem? Hamilton, Lorne D., Dec., 30-36.

Education

At the Royal Ontario Museum: Learning from the real thing. September, 28-31.

The Edmonton Concept. Jones, Rolland, December, 60-61.

Education finance: some problems in the 1970's. Atherton, Peter, September, 32-37.

Politics and planning. Byrne, T. C., December, 25-29.

Indians, Canadian

"Educators, your systems have failed!" Cardinal, Douglas, December, 22-24.

INDEX TO EDUCATION CANADA

Volume 10/1970

Subject Index

Administration

Recruiting leaders in school administration. Riederer, L.A., June, 34-36.

The school in 1980. Wallin, Herman A., March, 21-28.

Boards of Education

Changing relations between departments and school boards. Mowat, Gordon, December, 57-59.

The name of the game is accountability. Turner, J. Archie, December, 20-21.

A route to using resources more effectively. Keyes, Robert W., September, 38-41.

Change in Education

A decade of upheaval. Ross, Murray G., June, 18-22.

The delusion of change. St. John, J. Bascom, September, 3-8.

Politics and educational change in Britain. Knill, William, March, 43-47.

Revolution in curriculum or revolution in society? McDiarmid, G. L., June, 7-11.

Vitesse . . . ou lenteur de nos réactions en éducation. Beauregard, Claude, déc., 64-65.

Collective Bargaining

Collective bargaining by Canadian teachers: experience and direction. Muir, J. Douglas, June, 40-50.

Contract negotiations: the changing scene. Moir, Carmen, December, 66-68.

Computers

Computer education in Ontario secondary schools. Churchill, Stacy, and Norman Williams, September, 42-50.

L'ordinateur au service de la pédagogie. Huot, Guy, and Richard Trudel, mars, 29-34.

Consumer Education

Consumer education. Curry, Mary, December, 10-13.

Culturally disadvantaged children

Big city school: the way it was, the way it is. March, 8-12.

"I have seen great things happen . . . ". Quinn, William J., December, 42-49.

Montréal et les écoles des "zones grises". Grand'Maison, Georges, décembre, 50-56.

Curriculum

Revolution in curriculum or revolution in society? McDiarmid, G.L., June, 7-11.

What are we doing about Canadian content? Morrison, Alan B., December, 40-41.

Drugs — education

Drugs. What can the schools do about the problem? Hamilton, Lorne D., Dec., 30-36.

Education

At the Royal Ontario Museum: Learning from the real thing. September, 28-31.

The Edmonton Concept. Jones, Rolland, December, 60-61.

Education finance: some problems in the 1970's. Atherton, Peter, September, 32-37.

Politics and planning. Byrne, T. C., December, 25-29.

Indians, Canadian

"Educators, your systems have failed!" Cardinal, Douglas, December, 22-24.

International Education Year
How we can participate in International Education Year. Katz, Joseph, June, 37-39.
Why International Education Year? Greenough, Richard, March, 16-20

Public Relations
L'ABC des communications avec le public. Dugas, Gaston, décembre, 14-19.

School buildings
Open-plan schools: time for a peek at Lady Godiva. Anderson, D. Carl, June, 3-6.

Second Language Learning
One board's approach to teaching French in elementary grades. Gillespie, A. Grant, December, 62-63.

Student Opinion
Le projet PERPE: évaluation des cours par les étudiants des CEGEP. Gagné, Francoys, juin, 23-28.
A survey of how students perceive their high schools. Willis, H. L., and Gerald Halpern, June, 29-33.

Student Withdrawals
Reading ability and the potential dropout. Ahrendt, Kenneth M., March, 13-15.

Systems Analysis
How to apply a systems analysis approach to education. Roberts, W. Glyn, Sept., 9-13.
A route to using resources more effectively. Keyes, Robert W., September, 38-41.

Teacher Aides and Assistants
Enter the volunteer: part-time partners in the schools. Wormsbecker, John, Dec., 37-39.

Teacher Education
B.C.'s COFFE report: student teachers should study teaching. Tomkins, George S., September, 14-20.
The school: focal point of in-service education. Moir, Carmen, June, 15-17.
Teachers in Canada: supply and demand for the 70's. France, Norman, March, 3-7.

Teaching as a Profession
La co-décision: Un problème de l'heure dans l'enseignement. Massé, Denis, mars, 48-58.
La satisfaction des enseignants du secondaire du Québec. Marion, Guy et Claude Dufour, septembre, 21-27.

Television in Education
ETV agreement ends three years of uncertainty. March, 35-42.
Television in education: the hope for the future? MacNeil, Harold, December, 4-9.

Values
Educating for value judgement, Scarfe, N.V., June, 12-14.

Author Index

Ahrendt, Kenneth, Reading ability and the potential dropout, March, 13-15.
Anderson, D. Carl, Open-plan schools: time for a peek at Lady Godiva, June, 3-6.
Atherton, Peter, Education finance: some problems in the 1970's, September, 32-37.
Beauregard, Claude, Vitesse . . . ou lenteur de nos réactions en éducation, décembre, 64-65.
Byrne, T.C., Politics and planning, December, 25-29.
Cardinal, Douglas, "Educators, your systems have failed! " December, 22-24.

Churchill, Stacy, and Norman Williams, Computer education in Ontario secondary schools, September, 42-50.

Curry, Mary, Consumer education, December, 10-13.

Dufour, Claude, et Guy Marion, La satisfaction des enseignants du secondaire du Québec, septembre, 21-27.

Dugas, Gaston, L'ABC des communications avec le public, décembre, 14-19.

France, Norman, Teachers in Canada: supply and demand for the 70's, March, 3-7.

Gagné, Francoys, Le projet PERPE: évaluation des cours par les étudiants des CEGEP, juin, 23-28.

Gillespie, A. Grant, One board's approach to teaching French in elementary grades, December, 62-63.

Grand'Maison, Georges, Montréal et les écoles des "zones grises," décembre, 50-56.

Greenough, Richard, Why International Education Year? March, 16-20.

Halpern, Gerald, and H. L. Willis, A survey of how students perceive their high schools, June, 29-33.

Hamilton, Lorne D., Drugs. What can the schools do about the problem? December, 30-36.

Huot, Guy, et Richard-J. Trudel, L'ordinateur du service de la pédagogie, mars, 29-34.

Jones, Rolland, The Edmonton concept, December, 60-61.

Katz, Joseph, How we can participate in International Education Year, June, 37-39.

Keyes, Robert W., A route to using resources more effectively, September, 38-41.

Knill, William, Politics and educational change in Britain, March, 43-47.

Marion, Guy, et Claude Dufour, La satisfaction des enseignants du secondaire du Québec, septembre, 21-27.

Massé, Denis, La co-décision: un problème de l'heure dans l'enseignement, mars, 48-58.

McDiarmid, G. L., Revolution in curriculum or revolution in society? June, 7-11.

Moir, Carmen, Contract negotiations: the changing scene, December, 66-68.

— "The school: focal point of in-service education, June, 15-17.

Morrison, Alan B., What are we doing about Canadian content? December, 40-41.

Mowat, Gordon L., Changing relations between departments and school boards, December, 57-59.

Muir, J. Douglas, Collective bargaining by Canadian teachers, June, 40-50.

Quinn, William J., "I have seen great things happen . . . ", December, 42-49.

Riederer, L. A., Recruiting leaders in school administration, June, 34-36.

Roberts, W. Glyn, How to apply a systems analysis approach to education, Sept., 9-13.

Ross, Murray G., A decade of upheaval, June, 18-22.

St. John, J. Bascom, The delusion of change, September, 3-8.

Scarfe, N. V., Educating for value judgement, June, 12-14.

Tomkins, George S., B.C.'s COFFE report: student teachers should study teaching, September, 14-20.

Trudel, Richard-J., et Guy Huot, L'ordinateur au service de la pédagogie, mars, 29-34.

Turner, J. Archie, The name of the game is accountability, December, 20-21.

Wallin, Herman A., The school in 1980, March, 21-28.

Williams, Norman, and Stacy Churchill, Computer education in Ontario secondary schools, September, 42-50.

Willis, H. L., and Gerald Halpern, A survey of how students perceive their high schools, June, 29-33.

Wormsbecker, John, Enter the volunteer: part-time partners in the school, Dec., 37-39.